State Treasurer Fitzgerald Announces 2016 College Savings Iowa Deduction Amount

DES MOINES, Iowa – State Treasurer Michael L. Fitzgerald announced today that the Iowa income tax deduction has once again been raised for those saving with College Savings Iowa.*

“Iowa taxpayers can deduct the first $3,188 they contribute per beneficiary account from their state taxable income,” Fitzgerald said. “This means a married couple with two children will be able to deduct up to $12,752 in College Savings Iowa contributions on their 2016 state taxes.”

New this year, Iowa taxpayers may elect to contribute to their College Savings Iowa account up through the tax deadline for filing an individual Iowa state income tax return. “This means there is still time to contribute for 2015,” Fitzgerald added. “All Iowa taxpayers can still contribute for the 2015 tax year up through May 2, 2016, and claim a tax deduction of up to $3,163 per College Savings Iowa account.”

College Savings Iowa lets parents, grandparents, friends and relatives invest for college on behalf of a future scholar. It takes just $25 and 10 minutes to open an account online. Investors in the plan can withdraw their investment tax-free to pay for qualified higher education expenses, which include tuition, books, supplies and room and board at any eligible college, university, community college or accredited technical training school in the United States or abroad.

While participants do not need to be an Iowa resident to invest in the plan, they do need to be an Iowa taxpayer to take advantage of the Iowa income tax deduction.
