Perspective Wealth Partners Grants Scholarships to Eight Boise Children

(BOISE)—Eight kids who ran in the YMCA’s Harrison Classic on Sunday got an adrenalin boost and a financial boost. Perspective Wealth Partners, a Boise-based Registered Investment Advisor, awarded $250 scholarships to eight randomly-drawn participants in the kids-only race. Each winner will receive their money in an IDEal—Idaho College Savings Program account. When the winners are ready to use the money, they’ll be able to disburse it for education-related expenses at any accredited post-secondary institution in the United States.

“In our work, we encourage clients to think long-term in their financial decisions. Your children’s education is one of the biggest expenses you’ll ever face. By saving early through a program like IDEal, you not only have time on your side, but you have the power to leverage the market to help grow the money you invest,” said James Bailey, President of Perspective Wealth Partners.

The following students won scholarships:

Jesse Theriot, 13years old

Dayanara Ruiz, 10 years old

Ripley Miles, 9 years old

Alexa Blais, 8 years old

Annaliese Gisslen, 7 years old

Adien Learned, 6 years old

Beck Mueller, 5 years old

Cooper Moriarty, 3 years old

“We are incredibly grateful for Perspective Wealth Partners and their commitment to helping more Idahoans take advantage of the IDEal Program. We hope that the families who win these prizes will be inspired to keep saving for college through IDEal,” stated Christine Stoll, IDEal Executive Director. “The message that we and Perspective Wealth Partners are trying to send is that you don’t have to start with a lot. By saving a little bit at a time, even if it’s just $25 a month, families can significantly reduce the burden of paying for college.”
