A note from the Nebraska State Treasurer

On August 14, we joined disability advocates across the country in recognizing National ABLE Savings Day and raising awareness about state-sponsored ABLE (Achieving a Better Life Experience) plans.

For Nebraskans with disabilities and their families, an ABLE account can be an important tool for building financial security, increasing independence, and saving for qualified disability-related expenses.

"We want more Nebraskans to know about our state-sponsored Enable Savings Plan, especially those who can benefit from its use. The disability community faces unique financial challenges, which is why my office is working to spread the word about this program and its expanded eligibility."

Approximately 60,000 Nebraskans Are Eligible

An estimated 60,000 Nebraskans are eligible to participate in the Enable Savings Plan. As awareness of the program continues to grow, we are focused on making it easier for individuals, families, friends, and communities to support long-term financial empowerment.

Lower Minimum Contributions Coming This Fall

We are excited to announce that the Enable Savings Plan is working to lower its contribution minimums. The planned changes will:

* Reduce the minimum initial contribution from $50 to $25
* Reduce subsequent contribution minimums from $25 to $10

This change is expected to be implemented by the end of 2026.

Lower minimums will make it easier for account owners to begin saving and for family members, friends, and community organizations to contribute. Once implemented, gifts and contributions of $10 or more can help make a meaningful difference—one contribution at a time.

Achieving a Better Life Experience

Every Contribution Helps to Build Financial Independence
Contributions to an Enable account may qualify for a Nebraska state income tax deduction of up to $10,000. Contributions can come from an individual's earnings, as well as from family, friends, and other sources, up to $20,000. Account earnings and withdrawals for qualified disability-related expenses are tax-free.

Give to Enable: Expanding the Circle of Support
The "Give to Enable" crowdfunding program provides a fee-free platform to support eligible individuals with disabilities.

Businesses and nonprofits may also use the program to contribute to the accounts of eligible individuals, helping families, friends, organizations, and communities come together to support greater financial independence.

The Savings Journey
Whether you're an account owner making your first contribution, a family member looking for a meaningful way to give, or an organization interested in supporting individuals with disabilities, every dollar will help create financial independence. Save today to empower tomorrow.
