

5. WITHHOLDING ELECTION (Form W-4P/OMB No. 1545-0074)

You are responsible for paying any applicable federal and state income taxes on the taxable amount of a distribution that is not rolled over to another Roth IRA. You may elect to have a percentage of your distribution put toward the applicable federal and state taxes, or you may choose not to have federal and state income tax withheld from your payment. Your withholding election will remain in effect for any subsequent distribution unless you change or revoke it. Do not complete this section if you are requesting a transfer to another Roth IRA. You should consult a qualified tax adviser if you have any questions about tax withholding.

FEDERAL WITHHOLDING (Select one)

Note: If no option is selected, 10% will be withheld from the distribution.

RULES AND CONDITIONS APPLICABLE TO BENEFICIARY REQUIRED ELECTIONS

The IRA beneficiary election rules are often complex. The general rules are listed below. If you have questions regarding an election, consult with a competent tax professional or refer to IRS Publication 590-B, Distributions from Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs), for more information. This publication is available on the IRS website at www.irs.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM.

Beneficiary options depend on the type of beneficiary you are (estate, organization, trust, child, relative, spouse, or other).

INHERITED ROTH IRA

A beneficiary generally must make an election by December 31 of the year following the year of the original Roth IRA owner's death. A spouse beneficiary must make an election by the earlier of December 31 of the fifth year after the original owner's death, or December 31 of the year the original Roth IRA owner would have been age 70½.

Total Distribution. Any beneficiary may elect to receive a total distribution of the Inherited Roth IRA balance.

Transfer to an Inherited Roth IRA. Any beneficiary may transfer the assets directly into an inherited Roth IRA with another IRA trustee or custodian. You may be required at another financial organization to establish an inherited Roth IRA first to accept the assets. You are responsible for making a required election for the inherited Roth IRA assets and for receiving the applicable distribution by the deadline.

Roll Over or Transfer to my Own Roth IRA (Spouse beneficiary only). Spouse beneficiaries have the option of rolling over the distribution into their own Roth IRA. Spouse beneficiaries, who are the sole beneficiary of a Roth IRA may transfer the original Roth IRA owner's Roth IRA into their own Roth IRA.

Payments Over Five Years. The entire amount must be distributed by December 31 of the fifth year after the original Roth IRA owner's death.

Life Expectancy Payments. Distributions generally are taken over the beneficiary's life expectancy. A nonspouse beneficiary must begin distributions by December 31 of the year following the year of the original Roth IRA owner's death. A spouse beneficiary may delay payments until the year the original Roth IRA owner would have been age 70½, if that date is later than the year following the year of death.

WITHHOLDING NOTICE INFORMATION (Form W-4P/OMB No. 1545-0074)

Basic Information About Withholding From Pensions and Annuities. Generally, federal income tax withholding applies to the taxable part of payments made from IRAs.

Caution: There may be penalties for not paying enough tax during the year, through either withholding or estimated tax payments. New retirees should see Publication 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax. It explains the estimated tax requirements and penalties in detail. You may be able to avoid quarterly estimated tax payments by having enough tax withheld from your IRA using form W-4P.

Purpose of Form W-4P. Unless you elect otherwise, 10 percent federal income tax will be withheld from payments from individual retirement accounts (IRAs). You can use Form W-4P (or a substitute form, such as this form), provided by the custodian, to instruct your custodian to withhold no tax from your IRA payments or to withhold more than 10 percent.

Nonperiodic Payments. Payments made from IRAs that are payable upon demand are treated as nonperiodic payments for federal income tax purposes. Generally, nonperiodic payments must have at least 10 percent income tax withheld.

Your election will remain in effect for any subsequent withdrawal unless you change or revoke it.

Payments Delivered Outside of the U.S. A U.S. citizen or resident alien may not waive withholding on any withdrawal delivered outside of the U.S. or its possessions. Withdrawals by a nonresident alien generally are subject to a tax withholding rate of 30 percent. A reduced withholding rate may apply if there is a tax treaty between the nonresident alien's country of residence and the United States and if the nonresident alien submits Form W-8BEN, Certificate of Foreign Status of Beneficial Owner for United States Tax Withholding, or satisfies the documentation requirements as provided under federal regulations. The Form W-8BEN must contain the foreign person's taxpayer identification number.

For more information, Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities, and Publication 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens, are available on the IRS website at www.irs.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM.

Revoking the Exemption From Withholding. If you want to revoke your previously filed exemption from withholding, file another Form W-4P with the custodian and check the appropriate box on that form.

Statement of Income Tax Withheld From Your IRA. By January 31 of next year, the IRA custodian will provide a statement to you and to the IRS showing the total amount of your IRA distributions and the total federal income tax withheld during the year. Copies of Form W-4P will not be sent to the IRS by the custodian.
