Client Advantages and Options

What are the advantages of a 529 plan?

- Tax deferred investment growth and withdrawals that are free from federal taxes when used for qualified higher education expenses at an eligible school.¹
- Gift and estate tax benefits—for 2014 individuals may invest up to $14,000 ($28,000 for married couples) per beneficiary without incurring any gift tax. Upon the death of the account owner, money remaining in the account will not be included in the account owner's estate for federal estate tax purposes.
- Account owner control and flexibility over how assets are used
- Professional investment management

Why should you want to offer the SSgA Upromise 529 Plan to Your Clients?

- Institutional asset management from State Street Global Advisors' Investment Solutions Group (ISG)
- Powered by SPDR® ETFs—The underlying funds for the investment options offered in the plan are ETFs and, where applicable, an SSgA money market fund.
- A low-cost fund option that allows for more efficient investment of account owners' portfolios.²

What types of investments are available?

The plan offers the following investment options:

- 7 College Date Portfolios
- 3 Risk Based Portfolios
- 15 Static Portfolios
- Savings Portfolio

For complete details on the investment options offered by SSgA Upromise 529, please visit ssga.upromise529.com.

Is there a state tax deduction available?

Nevada does not have a state income tax, so there is no state tax deduction for Nevada residents. Many other states do provide tax deductions for contributions to 529 plans sponsored only by that state, and some states provide tax deductions for contributions to 529 plans sponsored by any state. You should check the rules for the applicable state.

¹Earnings on non-qualified withdrawals are subject to federal income tax and may be subject to a 10% federal penalty tax, as well as state and local income taxes. The availability of tax or other benefits may be contingent on meeting other requirements.

²Although they invest in ETFs and/or mutual funds, the SSgA Upromise 529 Plan Portfolios are not ETFs or mutual funds themselves. An account owner will own units of the portfolio, which are municipal securities, not shares of the ETFs or mutual funds.

Costs, Contribution Limits and Beneficiary Restrictions

What are the costs, contribution limits and beneficiary restrictions associated with the plan?

Costs
What are the management fees?	The annual asset-based plan fee varies from 0.29% to 0.89% depending on the portfolio chosen. For further details refer to the Plan Description and Participation Agreement .
What are the account fees?	There is no enrollment fee. There is an annual account fee of $20. (The annual account fee is waived for Nevada resident account owners and beneficiaries, and for anyone invested in the Savings Portfolio at the time the fee is assessed)
How many times can funds be re-allocated to different investment choices?	Once per calendar year or whenever the account's beneficiary is changed.
Contributions and Rollovers
What is the minimum deposit needed to open an account?	$15 for a lump sum contribution via check or a one-time electronic funds transfer or $50 per month or $150 a quarter with an Automatic Investment Plan*
Is there an annual or lifetime contribution limit?	Contributions can be made until the total contributions for the designated beneficiary reaches the lifetime maximum contribution limit of $370,000 (based on aggregate market value of all college saving plan accounts for the same designated beneficiary under all college savings programs sponsored by the State of Nevada). Accounts that have reached the Maximum Contribution Limit will continue to accrue earnings, although future contributions may not be made to such accounts.  Individuals contributing up to $14,000 ($28,000 if married filing jointly) in a single year can do so without incurring a gift tax. Individuals can also take advantage of the five year contribution rule and when gifting up to $70,000 per child in a single year ($140,000 for married couples) with no gift tax consequences as long as they make no additional gifts to the same child over the next five years. ***
Can funds be rolled over from a 401k or an IRA?	No, funds may not be rolled over from a 401(k) or an IRA account.
Can funds be rolled over from another 529 plan to the SSgA Upromise 529 plan?	Yes. A tax-free rollover of a 529 account for the same beneficiary is permitted once every twelve (12) months.
Ownership and Beneficiaries
Can the beneficiary be changed?	Yes, the beneficiary may be changed at any time without tax consequences as long as the new beneficiary is a "Member of the Family" of the current designated beneficiary (as defined under Section 529).*
Can account ownership be re-assigned?	Generally, yes; however, special rules apply for custodians of assets formerly held in an UGMA/UTMA account.

* A plan of regular investment cannot assure a profit or protect against a loss in a declining market

 The Board expects to evaluate the Maximum Contribution Limit annually, but reserves the right to make adjustments more or less frequently.

 In the event the donor does not survive the five-year period, a pro-rated amount will revert to the donor's taxable estate.

* Rules regarding gifts and generation-skipping transfer tax may apply in the case of a change of beneficiary. You should consult with a tax advisor when considering a change of beneficiary.

Expenses and Withdrawals

Which education expenses are eligible?

To qualify for federal tax-free withdrawals on earnings, the money must be used for qualified higher education expenses for the beneficiary at an eligible educational institution. Some international schools and overseas study programs qualify.

- Eligible Educational Institutions—Eligible educational institutions are those eligible to participate in federal student financial aid programs. An easy way to check a school's eligibility under Section 529 is to confirm they have been assigned a federal school code at fafsa.ed.gov.
- Qualified Higher Education Expenses—Qualified higher education expenses are tuition, mandatory fees, books, supplies and equipment required for enrollment or attendance of higher education. Certain room and board costs during any academic period for which the beneficiary is enrolled at least half-time and certain expenses for special-needs students are also eligible.

What happens to funds not used for qualified higher education expenses?

Any funds that are not used for the beneficiary's qualified higher education expenses can be withdrawn for other uses. However, the earnings portion of a withdrawal not used for a beneficiary's qualified education expenses is subject to federal and state income taxes and may also be subject to a 10% federal penalty tax. Exceptions to this penalty include a withdrawal made because the beneficiary:

- Dies
- Becomes disabled
- Receives a scholarship, to the extent the withdrawal amount does not exceed the scholarship amount
- Attends the United States Military Academy, the United States Naval Academy, the United States Air Force Academy, the United States Coast Guard Academy, or the United States Merchant Marine Academy, to the extent that the amount of the withdrawal does not exceed the costs of education attributable to such attendance

Alternatively, should a beneficiary decide not to go to college an account owner has the option to either request a non-qualified withdrawal, change the beneficiary or stay invested in the case that the beneficiary decides to go to college at a later date (there is no age limit to use the funds).

How are withdrawals made?

Withdrawals can be requested either online at <https://uii.s.upromise.com/content/forms.html>, or by submitting a Withdrawal Request Form.

- Proceeds from qualified withdrawals can be sent to the account owner, the beneficiary, or the higher education institution.
- Proceeds from non-qualified withdrawals can be sent to the account owner or the beneficiary. Generally, withdrawals may be made at any time.

Are there other ways to save?

Yes, Ugift and Upromise Rewards both offer additional ways to save.

Ugift®

Ugift allows family and friends to celebrate children's milestones with the gift of college savings (in lieu of traditional gifts). By logging onto their SSgA Upromise 529 account and clicking on the Ugift logo, clients can invite their family and friends to contribute with as little as $15 per gift.

Upromise® Rewards

Upromise rewards is a service that helps families earn extra money for college with many of the country's leading retailers. When a client links their Upromise rewards account to their SSgA Upromise 529 account, they can arrange to have their rewards earnings automatically transferred to their 529 account on a periodic basis (subject to a $25 minimum).

IMPORTANT RISK INFORMATION

ETFs trade like stocks, fluctuate in market value and may trade at prices above or below the ETFs net asset value. Brokerage commissions and ETF expenses will reduce returns.

Frequent trading of ETFs could significantly increase commissions and other costs such that they may offset any savings from low fees or costs.
