Invest Today for a Better Tomorrow

ABLE accounts give individuals with disabilities and their families the ability to save for a wide range of qualified disability expenses on a tax-advantaged basis. Choose from a variety of investment options to fit your goals and comfort with risk.

Options that meet your needs

- Contribute to an FDIC-insured checking account (through Fifth Third Bank) to easily withdraw money for qualified everyday expenses using a debit card or by writing a check.
- For funds that you may not need immediate access to, consider investing in a portfolio. There are options ranging from aggressive strategies with higher volatility, but the potential for higher returns, to conservative ones focused on capital preservation.

Choose what's best for you

Consider these questions to help decide how to save:

- What disability expenses do I want to save for?
- When will I need the money?
- What is my risk tolerance?

Before investing in any ABLE program, you should consider whether your home state offers an ABLE program that provides its taxpayers with favorable state tax or other benefits that are only available through investment in the home state’s ABLE program. You also should consult your financial, tax, or other adviser to learn more about how state-based benefits (or any limitations) would apply to your specific circumstances. You also may wish to directly contact your home state’s ABLE program, or any other ABLE program, to learn more about those plans’ features, benefits and limitations. Keep in mind that state-based benefits should be one of many appropriately weighted factors to be considered when making an investment decision.

The Member Plan is sponsored by the state of Indiana and administered by Indiana ABLE Authority. The Member Plan is intended to be a qualified ABLE plan offered through the National ABLE Alliance. Ascensus College Savings Recordkeeping Services, LLC, the Program Manager, and its affiliates, have overall responsibility for the day-to-day operations, including investment advisory, recordkeeping and administrative services. The Member Plan’s Investment Options are allocations to mutual funds, ETFs, banking products and/or other investments. Except for the Checking Account Option, investments in the Member Plan are not insured by the FDIC. Interests in the Member Plan are municipal securities and the value of your Account will vary with market conditions.
